Trips you've attended (name the guides and dates):

Are you able to attend weekly mandatory meetings next fall?

Can you meet SCO's minimum trip requirement (3 days per semester)?

1. What organizations are you involved in on campus or online currently, and how much time do you dedicate to each? Please consider commitments beginning in the fall as well.
2. Have you taken an outdoor course such as NOLS, Outward bound, or Boy/Girl Scouts or anything similar?
3. Do you hold any technical or medical certifications?
4. Do you have formal trip leading experience—professional guiding, tripping camps, etc.?

5. Do you have informal trip leading experience—solo trips, trips with family and friends, etc.?
6. Describe a scenario in which you encountered a challenge—backcountry or front country—and your resolution.
7. Describe a situation where you assumed a leadership role.
8. How would one of your close friends describe you?
9. What is your most memorable outdoor experience?
10. If money were not an issue, what is your dream outdoor experience?
11. Now, money is an issue. If you could lead a (realistic) SC Outfitters trip, where would you go? Please include pertinent details of planning etc.
12. As a guide, what improvements would you make to foster a sense of community and better the SCO membership experience?
13. What would you do as a guide to further our mission of getting more students outside?
14. Many of our guides focus on a particular facet of the outdoors - be it backpacking, climbing, surfing, etc. Though we encourage our guides to learn new skills, what niche do you see yourself filling?
15. How did you hear about SCO and how did you hear about becoming a guide?
16. Anything else you'd like to add?
